

South Florida Chapter

For Immediate Release
Contact: John Parr
(954) 938-2137

Thursday, January 10, 2007

Fort Lauderdale, Florida - The National Association of Industrial and Office Properties (NAIOP) is pleased to announce the election of Mr. Pike Rowley as 2007 President of the South Florida Chapter.

Pike Rowley is the President and CEO of Rowley Group in Broward County. He has over 20 years of experience in office and industrial leasing, acquisition and disposition. He oversees a brokerage team who specialize in office, industrial and investment properties, while actively leasing and selling properties representing both landlords and tenants. Prior to Rowley Group Mr. Rowley was the Director of Codina Realty's Broward office for six years and prior to that he owned his own company Property Trust Realty for ten years. Mr. Rowley currently represents major institutional landlords in over 1 million square feet of Class "A" and "B" office space in Broward County. Mr. Rowley was named NAIOP, (National Association of Office and Industrial Properties), Broker of the Year for South Florida in 2002, Member of the Year in 2003 and received the Master of Corporate Real Estate (MCR) designation in 2002. Mr. Rowley is married to the former Laurie Fleming for 32 years and has two children Brett age 30, and Carrie age 25, and the Rowley's have lived in Lighthouse Point, FL for the past 25 years.

NAIOP was organized in 1976 and is committed to enhancing the business opportunities of its members and to improving the professionalism of the individual, the image of the industry, and the quality of life in our communities. NAIOP is a dynamic network of 56 chapters representing more than 19,000 commercial real estate professionals across the United States and Canada, with the South Florida Chapter the twelfth largest chapter.

---